

Monard Law – Associate Commercial Law with focus on Corporate Law

About Monard Law

"Really do a lot of what you love doing" is 1 of the sayings on our mission statement. We are looking for lawyers who are passionate about Commercial Law with an emphasis on Corporate Law.

You'll get the chance to work for a broad spectrum of clients ranging from promising and innovative start-ups and large (family) businesses to multinationals in very diverse sectors.

Due to our growing activities, we are looking for an associate to complete our Corporate team in Hasselt.

About the Role

- Handling files from A to Z, from consulting to formulating an opinion, mediating towards a solution or advocating in court
- Assist clients in their growth projects including due diligence and negotiation of agreements, guidance of transactions
- Providing constructive, pragmatic solutions in which you think creatively and out-of-the-box with your client to provide substantial added value for them
- Ensuring clear communication with clients and building good relationships with them
- Training and supervising young lawyers
- Help build the Monard Law of the future

Profile

- You have a Masters degree in law from a Belgian university
- At least 3 years of working experience in corporate law with emphasis on company law or vice versa
- Enterprising, solution-oriented and pragmatic attitude
- An unmistakable team player
- You are thorough in your work
- You have a sense of humor and the ability to put things in perspective
- You have a good understanding of clients need and proactively ask questions to frame their requirements
- Good language skills (Dutch, English, French)

<https://www.monardlaw.be/>